

Black heels streaking through the shadows
Red stripes are closing around my neck hot
There's can't be me until I find the doors
Answers in smile that in front of me
Heartache is melting with her heart beat
White dress is dancing till the night's gone
Watching her moves makes me so sweet
Lifting my mind like a loaded gun

Night fly! Hugging up the fever
Two steps closer to the fire
When she walks near I'm the river
When she goes out I'm denial
High times! Deepping in the earthquake
Hard breath! Kissing all the day's light
Everything's clear. It's the last take. Here on my site
