

When War Is Over

TNMK (THMK)

Staying strong feeling weak
Touching dreams night is long
Shifting earth rolling wheels
Doing right looking wrong
Faith is true, hold me...

Tears are blood, steel and pain
They won't beat us again
Kiss my wound give me strength
In your heart lives my faith

When war is over
I'll come back for you, yeah
And we'll be stronger
We can start anew, yeah
When war is over
Sun will melt the cloud, yeah
Skies will be closer
Your love is my shroud

Green is night bright is day
Heroes win losers fail
Burning hearts stronger minds
Hand in hand time is kind

History - our fate
Woke us up, not too late
Fulled and pushed into war
War of cold - from before
We can't lose we won't fail
Love to choose, life to gain

When war is over
I'll come back for you, yeah
And we'll be stronger
We can start anew, yeah
When war is over
Sun will melt the cloud, yeah
Skies will be closer
Your love is my shroud
