

Children Who Start Fires

To Kill a King

Well close the door,
Lock away the night.
Close the door,
And take my hand.
Let go of your coat,
Wash your face.

I heard you burnt yourself again,
Lighting fires with someone else.
Just because you're cold,
Just because you're bored,
Just because you can.
Don't hide your eyes,
From me. He's always late,
And I'm always free.

I heard you burnt yourself again,
Lighting fires with someone else.
Just because you're cold,
Just because you're bored,
Just because you can.
Don't hide your eyes,
From me. He's always late,
And I'm always free

I heard you burnt yourself again,
Lighting fires with someone else.
Just because you're cold,
Just because you're bored,
Just because you can. [x3]
