

Lips & Assholes

To The Grave

Let the wolves feed upon the cradle of civilization
Behold the great mutilation, unnatural selection

There's bodies in our backyard but we pretend everything is fine
We just turn a blind eye and move on with our pathetic lives
Not a single one of them deserved the cross they bear
They don't believe in a hell because they're already there

Slaughtered like swine, the rest of your kind, we'll drain them dry
They brought piss to a shitfight

You talk a lot but you don't stand for shit
Fucking pigs, they say they care but don't have the balls to prove it
Better off aborted than raised like a bitch

Twelve years until you get the world you asked for
I guess they are what they eat, just lips and assholes
These hypocrites need to answer for their stupidity
If I gave a fuck about God you'd be the devil to me

Confidence born of ignorance, the cycle can't be broken, hopeless fucks
Bow down at the feet of the death machine
Keep licking the boot that's standing on your neck

When you're nose deep in shit
Don't take a second to breathe
Keep your mouth shut or start swallowing it
Bow your heads into the swinging axe

I vow to you all
I'll never truly be comfortable
How can I smile when there's blood staining the walls?
Screams are all I hear at night, and they're your fault
I pity cunts like you, let me speak clearly when I say
You've declared war, and I see you as the enemy
And I will finish the horror that you fucking started
You're either with us or you're a target

There's not enough sand on the planet
To bury seven billion heads
But there's more than enough bullshit
To keep us up to our necks in it

Breathe in deep and sink
Fuck this flesh culture obsession
Common sense is dead, just a piece of meat

Blood will flow
Ashes in the trash, discarded
You're finished
But we're just getting started

I knew you'd sink but I didn't know how far
Like the piece of shit you are

We scatter and flee like pathetic roaches
Passing the blame and fanning the flames

Such is the way of the human disgrace
