

Polly Jean

Toadies

Polly Jean, let your hair down
But let me see your face
Where I've been doesn't matter now
My history erased

Come float a little low into my arms
And shine a little light, and let me know you are

Polly Jean
Polly Jean
Polly Jean
Polly Jean

Polly Jean, my desire
Let me see your face
Let me breathe in your fire
And breathe out your grace

Come float a little low and sing to me
Your voice is my hope, you sing and I breathe

Polly Jean
Polly Jean
Polly Jean
Polly Jean
Polly Jean

I can see you floating
Floating in the water
Out in the water
A little closer
A little closer
I can almost touch
Closer
Let me take your hand

Come float a little low into my arms
And shine a little light, and let me know you are

Polly Jean
Polly Jean
Polly Jean
Polly Jean

Polly Jean
Polly Jean
Polly Jean
