

BIG CAP

Tobe Nwigwe

Mm-mm-mm-mm

Mm-mm-mm-mm-mm

I'm from the West

Ayy, look my papa told me out here, told me to defeat the demon (Yeah)
The Holy Ghost make sure these hoes ain't get none of my semen
I used to cuss while I was broke 'til He gave me a reason (Yeah)
To put my foot up on they throat and leave 'em barely breathin'
Ooh, they get asthmatic as I spazz rappin'
Whether you a crash dummy or just tweakin', you still a crash addict
Pragmatic, dealings with opposition helped me detach habits
Bled rampant, then put 'em in the furnace to avoid callous
Sentiments, Benjamins ain't the only thing in my satchel
My life is so intricate, I ain't in sin for it to be so much travel
I strive to be intimate when the attendance is so many gathered
But crystalline penmanship, if it benefits a few part-time rappers
Yeah, but my, my, my, how the times change
Fabrication, and it beat inside, these for my friends
When you don't got drip inside, you just ride wave
Hope to change your mindstate, mm-mm

'Cause your need more hats when you rap
'Cause I smell the cap
Some of y'all be trippin' with no map
Stop all the cappin'
Please miss my palm with that dap (Please)
I smell the cap
Some of y'all need a sombrero hat
Big, big, big, big, big cap

Ayy, look, hello, hello, hello
Hello, hello, hello
Hello
Say it with me, hello
Old things slide when you sellin' no shipments
Should be smilin' when you pop, it's the greatest bomb of profits
Of Pinocchio, that answer made me deeper
With the okie-doke, mm-hmm
Now when you cap
I can hear the 59FIFTY in your tone
Please take all them ones out your money phone
Shoulda had biggest cap tattooed on your throne, mm-hmm

If you need my hats when you rap
'Cause I smell the cap
Some of y'all be trippin' with no map
Stop all the cap
Please miss my palm with that dap (Please)
I smell the cap
Some of y'all need a sombrero hat
Big, big, big, big, big cap
Big, big, big, big, big cap (Mm-mm-mm)
Big, big, big, big, big cap
I smell the cap
Big, big, big, big, big cap (No rap wit' you about it)
Big, big, big, big, big cap (Still out here chasin' clout)
Big, big, big, big, big cap (When the words come out your mouth)

I smell the cap
Big, big, big, big, big cap
