

Building Forever

Tobe Nwigwe

Yeah

Ah, ooh, yeah

I just wanna build forever

Forever and ever and ever

I got a lady friend, but nah, we ain't together

But we've committed to a building process to build forever

This endeavor keeps me warmer than a sweater

Or hotter than the desert, my head feels like it's severed

I'm in the clouds

But in actuality Ms. Congeniality's morality was like gravity

Pulling, or maybe it's her nationality

It's different to see yo' dream girl up in reality

Wake up, we caked up, Duncan Hines, Betty Crocker

We kickin' it just like soccer like Ariel and that lobster

Sebastian, ex-nay on all that smashin'

We headed down the highway of love, can't do no crashin'

Seat belt please, she felt pleased, we knelt knees, touched the ground

Pray hard to stay in the field of play, don't go out of bounds

She dodged all my darts at her heart, I was out of rounds

Way different from the guy that she dated that lives out of town

He failed, I'm next, that ship sailed, I'm blessed

I'm a beast, she a vet, she got what I need so I'm not upset

I'll walk up steps, up mountains to feel that beat inside her chest

Her imperfections are Picasso, altogether a beautiful mess

I paint the picture with the brush, and we don't rush

'Cause minute rice taste so disgusting when ya got something like trust

Up in the oven cooking slowly, she don't know me, but she will

This is magic, Copperfield, get to close, might cop a feel

Got to tell my flesh to chill, trill talk, blow the whistle

For her I'll earn my stripes like a referee, to make sure that it's official

Had an immaculate conception, females of her complexion

Can't touch the class of her perfection

You can look, viewer discretion is advised

'Cause she live, no surprise, joke or jive, she a five

Times two multiplied, by another five

That's a 50, and she nifty, and she talented and gifted

I'm addicted, holy smokes, Holy Ghost my spirits lifted

Who would've picked it? (Who would, who would?)

Who would've picked it? (Who would, who would?)

Hmm, who would've picked it? (Who would, who would?)

Yeah, who would've picked it?

Building forever

Building forever

Building forever

Building forever (Building)

Building forever (Building)

Building forever (Forever and ever and ever)

Forever, forever-ever, forever-ever

Forever, forever-ever, forever-ever

Building forever (Building)

Building forever (Building)

Building forever (Forever and ever and ever)

Forever, forever-ever, forever-ever

Forever, forever-ever, forever-ever

Forever, forever-ever

Forever never seems that long until ya shown
A language of love not taught by Rosetta Stone
We protected by a house made of steel so bust ya chrome
Pray that hate don't ricochet and bust you up in ya dome
Leave me alone
I know I'm in another galaxy galloping and galavanting around like there's n o tragedy possible
Lovesick, I need a hospital
Past relationships were necessary obstacles
Don't complain, I know her past done brought her pain
But everything happens for a reason, nothing's in vain
You my multiplicity, all I did was plant the grain
Girl, yo' presence is water, all them lames can't stand the rain
Now, I see, it don't matter the weather
Hot stuff, get cold, make sure you pack a sweater
To reach your highest heights, everybody need propellers
'Till then just chill, we tryna build forever

Forever, forever-ever, forever-ever (We tryna build forever, baby)
Forever, forever-ever, forever-ever (We tryna build forever, baby)
Forever, forever-ever, forever-ever (We tryna build forever)
Forever, forever-ever, forever-ever

We're tryna build forever (Building)
We're tryna build forever (Building)
We're tryna build forever (Building)
(Forever and ever and ever)
Forever, forever-ever, forever-ever
Forever, forever-ever, forever-ever
We're tryna build forever (Building)
We're tryna build forever (Building)
We're tryna build forever (Building)
(Forever and ever and ever)
Forever, forever-ever, forever-ever
Forever, forever-ever, forever-ever

We're tryna build forever
We're tryna build forever
Forever and ever, it's just me and you
We're tryna build forever
We're tryna build forever, baby
Forever and ever, ooh
We're tryna build forever
We're tryna build forever
We're tryna build forever
