

Ol Extra Long Random Interlude

Tobe Nwigwe

So what is up next, man? When can people begin to catch you live? I mean, I know these are just mixtapes, you know

Yeah

I'm sure we're gonna work on a new, real album for the people real soon

Yeah. Yep, like right now

Now?

The next performance is.. Well, I perform quarterly in the city. Uh, doing my own show called The Dope Art Show that I put on, not just myself, but for others that are extremely dope. Painters, singers, dancers, poets, the whole nine yards. So I do that quarterly, and the EP is definitely coming soon

Man, shout out.. We got a nice one. You got a nice shout out from Sway In The Morning

Oh yeah

And that right there is big. And that was early on, early on Sway comes on your Instagram, he likes the music, hits you up in your DMs, and he's like "yo, when you coming to New York to be on the show?"

Yup. Yeah. And I was like now if you say so. That's the thing, you know what I'm saying? We gon' wait.. We not gon' wait long at all. We're preparing a project to put out, and we'll be there in literally no time. Man, also shout out to Michael B. Jordan. Yeah, he be showing me love. Leon Bridges be showing me love, man. So I just appreciate the notoriety from people who have accomplished a lot in the entertainment industry. It's an extreme blessing to have, such high-profiled people shouting me out and looking out for the music. And I could just imagine what's to come, and especially with Fat being by my side, Fat is so fine

And that was my next question actually

What's up?

You know, you got a number one supporter right here by your side at all times in Fat. She is your fiancée, y'all will be married soon

Ayy, ay, this the thing though, we about to put out, we about to make a website or, what he say, honeyfundme, what he call it?

I think it was Honey Fund

Yep, that's what it is, yo. So we're gonna make one of those, so people, everybody who wanna support the relationship, the mayors, we're g onna give y'all a phenomenal platform to give back so we can have a live.. wait, ain't that right, Fat?

That's right

That's right. Say hi, what are some of the things you would want, in, uh?

Oh, well, I mean, it's gonna be on the website

Money, that's what she meant, she meant to say money. She meant to just say money. Yup, y'all send as much money as y'all want to

Whatever people are able to give is very much appreciated

Fat, talk that shit

Money, money, money

Money

Yeah, exactly. You better tell them. Nah, we appreciate it all, man. All the love and support from all over the place has been crazy. It's gonna be real live. Everybody can't come, but you can donate. Praise God
