

WAVY

Tobe Nwigwe

Look, now I can see that you're smitten lil' kitten
And ya aura scratch every once of my spirit that's been itchin'
For the opportunity for you and me to exclusively
Form a lil' community of chocolate babies for proper raisin'
I'm not just saying this because your eyes as green as celery
You ask me if I think you're the one, I say "hell, ya better be"
'Cause I invested all this time, effort, and energy
Into the preconceived notion that we both got some synergy, but

Ooh, I can use some water
And you look wavy baby
Ooh, I can use some water
And you look wavy baby (Ooh)

Now would you let me surf
'Cause I can rode your wave
You need a man that's woke
Well girl I'm wide awake
And I'm open (Open)
I usually keep it inside, but today I'm outspoken (Yeah, yeah)
I really need you in my life

Ooh, I can use some water
And you look wavy baby (Oh, yeah, yeah, yeah)
Ooh, I can use some water (Yeah, yeah, yeah)
And you look wavy baby (Oh)

Now I don't really like to flirt (I don't)
But you make me talk to talk
Make lil' papa put in work (Work it out)
I hope it all pays off
'Cause you so fine
Mind, body, and soul, girl you just so
Fine, fine, fine
That's why I feel like

Ooh, I can use some water (Yeah, yeah)
And you look wavy baby (Oh, yeah, yeah, yeah)

I can use some hydration
Please let me get a sip
I can use some hydration
Please let me get a sip
I can use some hydration
Please let me get a sip
I can use some hydration
Please let me get a sip
