

Break

Tobi Lou

[?] the night
Interested me so
But I dared to knock
Crack the door and [?]

Run it in
Break, break
But it shouldn't, uh
Break, break, break

I feed cats that don't belong to me
Knew a pack that grew up on the streets
Born free never knew a leash
No contract, no apostrophe
If you attack them you harming me
And I am not the one you want to see
Man, I don't know fuck wrong with me
Man, I don't know fuck wrong with me
I'm not exactly who I wanna be Honestly, I just think I would be
Probably way more, obviously
If I wasn't on technology
Constantly flippin' my phone horizontally
Only taking breaks periodically
Companies invade my privacy
Fuck your company policy
Let's both agree to disagree
New fleet, Jubilee
You and me, an odyssey
Fun world with a lotta weed (Yes)
Drugged up like a pharmacy
Fucked up in a Dollar Tree (Where the fuck we at?)
Bitch I thought this was a Walgreens
Bitch I thought we was in a Walgreens
Al Green, Yao Ming, new public housing
My eyes so red think I need Visine (Visine)
Could end up dead if you look like me (Ooh)
I never seen nobody like you
I never seen nobody-

Run it in
But it shouldn't, uh
Break, break, break (Runnin' on these fumes could use a break)
Break, break (Runnin' back and forth)

I like when you call me daddy, uh
What you think about changing your name? (We want something good)
I knew you gotta find your purpose soon
Til' then we could take shots with the moon
(Break)

Break my concentration
Break apart this simulation

Take apart my consolation
Break my heart in moderation (Call me daddy)
No more altercations
Stiff arm that shit like Walter Payton (Step on it)
No more conversation
Dog, fuck is you s-?
Give me a (Break) (Six)
Six blunts in rotation
Really give a nigga motivation
Spring break no occupation
No more (Break)
Might need to triple the rate
I got a lot on my plate
But baby come sit on my face

I need a (Break) (Yeah, yeah) (I need a break)
Don't break me down, break me down babe (Run it in)
(Break) Break me down (break)
Break me babe (But it shouldn't, uh)
Break me, break me down (Break, break)
Want you to break me down (Break)
Want you (Runnin' on these fumes could use a break)
(Break, break) (Runnin' back and-)

God guys I could really use a break here, okay?
