Look ma, look ma
No hands on this bike and shit
Wanna feel this free forever, nothin' else that I can predict
Draped up my lil' homie like, "Why you smokin' them cancer sticks?"
Since I was a pup, I been with the big dogs on campuses
But I'm coolin' like a summer breeze
And yet my eyes on the Winter Solstice
I can make a movie if you really want this
Baby, I could put you on some really grown shit

No one like
Ayy, yo-yo

Like USHER, yes, I got a confession (Yes, I got a confession)
Let me go straight to the point (You should go straight to the point)
You got my juices flowin' (Oh-oh)
Baby girl, you gon' love me, oh-nee
"Today, nah today," that is what they used to say
French kiss your nani, have you screamin', "Si vous plait"
Lemme just do my part, USB in your port
Baby, you so important
Baby, you so on point
And I feel like you're a butterfly

No one like

Uh, shawty showed up like a meal, I can't wait to taste it
Dressed in all white like a geisha's face is painted
Girl, you love me, that's a basic statement
And if we both fall, then our spirits could brace us
Shawty, tell me rest up
I look in her eyes like, "Nah, I love the pressure"
Uh, no second guessin'
She said women live long 'cause most niggas are stupid
And the ego is ruthless, 'cause we run, skip and jump to conclusions
Well, damn, you need love delivered tonight, I'm the mailman
Call me on my shit, we ain't got to tell them
Real love, ain't no other kind
The caterpillar bloomed in a cocoon into a butterfly
