You always wanted him to go deeper
You always wanted him to go
You always wanted him to go

You always wanted him to go (deeper)
You always wanted him to go
You always wanted him to go
You always wanted him to go
You always wanted him to go
When you wanna go below the surface baby
Call me up and imma dive in
Call me up and imma dive in
Can I Splash
Can I Can I can I splash
Can I Can I (ouuu ouu ouu ouu)
Can I Can I (ouuu ouu ouu ouu)
Can I Can I (ouuu ouu ouu ouu)
Can I Can I (ouuu ouu ouu ouu)

A metaphor met her for what the real truth
Heavens doors let's it pour when it hears you
I wanna see your bloopers your outtakes not just your highlight reel I want the real you
I ain't gon stand on the pulpit and act like a minister
I ain't a perfect man
I'm just intelligent
I guess that's the difference
He's on the bench and me I'm a starter and plus I'm a finisher
Finisher tryna figure out your location
You know see where you're at with this stuff
We don't talk about feelings enough especially when the feelings are rough
Or anytime you say that you're feeling down
He's way too focused on feeling you up
Trying not to get in my counsel mode you know Dr. Philing you up
But that's not for you
But you always want something new
We both too scared to be vulnerable
That shit makes us uncomfortable
Hit you up and you came thru
I came and you came too (to)
A realization he ain't for you
Understand I'm not blaming you
Brought rain boots for that walk in the morning down the trail of tears that forming as they falling from your skin... Olive Oil on your skin
Swimming in 'em like Michael Phelps
All these cookies that's on a platter
I couldn't help myself. I had to help myself to some
I won't front just to tell you I'm the one...

You always wanted him to go (deeper)
You always wanted him to go
You always wanted him to go
You always wanted him to go
You always wanted him to go
When you wanna go below the surface baby
Call me up and imma dive in
Call me up and imma dive in
