Through it all I can't complain it feels so good
(I can't complain it feels so good)
I don't know what I would do without you
(I don't know what I'd do without you)
Through it all I can't complain it feels so good
(Oh baby, it feels so good)
I don't know what I would do
(I don't know what I'd do without you)
What I would do, what I would do

Hoodie on in LA, I'm already hot
Goose and Leon hit me with the bass, that shit was Redi-rock
So I hit the booth and left it steaming like I'm Betty Crock
Steady tipping plus we heavy dripping like a Neti pot
Late night text from my ex, end in a Fetty Wap
Bet she hot, will I do it? Better not, let's bet a knot
This King already got a Corretta Scott
She know I'm on my journey so I let it rock
20 minutes left with this therapist
Telling her the truth and I'm just hoping that she hearing it
I, changed the game cuz this game here not at all fair
Brought my dogs out from the rain cuz ain't no one care
Why they wait to give you flowers when you can not smell?
And why they wait to lift you up when they your pallbearers?
If time is money I need me a Richard Mille
Doing this inner work to ensure my demons a fear me
This, 90 minutes with my therapists up
The misadventures of a sensitive thug
I'm leaving notes, it's like my memory sucks
A Hail Mary and the stands a erupt
Soon as I touch down in the ends we'll be up
And that's on me boy

Through it all I can't complain it feels so good
(I can't complain it feels so good)
I don't know what I would do without you
(I don't know what I'd do without you)
Through it all I can't complain it feels so good
(Oh baby, it feels so good)
I don't know what I would do
(I don't know what I'd do without you)
What I would do, what I would do

This second verse is for the women I cherish and love
Take my time cuz you inherit distrust
First date I remember I picked you up in my car
Gave you a hug, I can tell you were nervous as fuck
So was I but I held it and stuck to it because That's how, a young boy learned to get thru the mud
We hopped out of my whip, a knife fell out your purse
You said, "Ain't too many places a girl is safe on this earth"
I said, "I understood" but I didn't
God damn, the privilege of the skin that I live in God damn, I walk at night don't think twice 'bout the feeling at all
Think we could make this world a better place for all of our children?
Not just another blue check with an opinion
I vow to make a killing in the land of the living

What if 20 years later our kids grow in this system?
And not have to repeat history...

Through it all I can't complain it feels so good
(I can't complain it feels so good)
I don't know what I would do without you
(I don't know what I'd do without you)
(Oh baby, it feels so good)
(I don't know what I'd do without you)
