

Momma told me Tobi love everybody
You got to love everybody for real
Sometimes I be like fuck everybody
Man, fuck everybody for real
You really make it so hard, oh
You make this so hard for me
You make this so hard
But you make this so hard for me
Everytime I be like fuck everybody
Man fuck everybody
Man fuck everybody for real
But somedays I'm like, love everybody
Love, man love everybody for real

You really make it so hard, oh
You make this so hard for me
You make it so hard
You make this so hard for me

Lately I've been on some peace shit
Bob Marley John Lennon peace shit
Martin Luther King Gandhi peace shit
Romeo Dallaire peace corp peace
Some East-Asian girl cliché photo peace shit
So 5 percenter peace to the Gods
Miss universe I've been looking for some world peace shit
But daam
Motherfuckers always take your kindness as a weakness
I've seen this happening over time
The sequence repeat shoulda said
Deuces now they taking advantage They take you for granted
You granted, all of their wishes you, made em a savage
Snakes by the ladders
They spot you as soon as you moving up
Your ehad on a swivel cause you don't know who to trust
Stabbed in the back to much now you turn villainous
As the wound start healing up
All of these cuts, feeling like scarface
And I don't Seal with it
I mean Tony Montana I let the choppa deal with you
Everyone claming their real
Farthest from it I'm like eww
This is a ill picture, nah
I cannot deal with you all
The boy Nate like true true, the Boy Tobi going cuckoo in the booth
Cool cool
Lately people thinking that I'm rude, too true
My dude, its not that I don't fuck with you
Is more so I don't fuck with you
I got trust issues man
Sceptical/cynical/ lyrical ass-rapper
Borderline atheist momma ask me why I don't pray for shit
I'm like well I can work hard and pay for shit
Better yet rob steal just take this shit
Or do both on some politician panama paper shit
Ranting and raving this feels amazing
Whoever sayd racism was dead never had

A cop on a bike trailing their friends
I mean some real shit but you know
I'm like fuck everybody
I meant fuck everybody
I know mommy you told me to love everybody
But it's so so so hard
So so hard
So hard
For me, ohh

But foreal tho' but foreal tho'
Momma like
You know you always instill these values for me
To love everybody as I love myself
And even tho it gets harder and harder eveday I got to be stronger than that
For real
