Silhouette

TOBi

I know many men, I know many men'll lie
You the kind that wanna analyze every lie
With your hand in mine, visions that I had in mind
Make a sinner raise a hand to God, uh
From the kiss cam to the sonogram
I got sweet things that nobody can
That your body can, yeah

Just gotta fall right on me
I'll take you as you are
Just fall right on me
I'll take you as you are

I admit I'm optimistic in the midst of stormy weather
Indecisive, insecure, the places we've been in together
You were still recoverin' from my heartless effort
Open up for once and let me kiss it better, oh-oh

Two can play these games so I don't
I don't do pretend, no, I don't
Two can play these games so I don't
I don't do pretend, no, I don't, I don't

Fall right on me
I'll take you as you are
Just fall right on me
Fall right on me

Aye, hands on your silhouette
Stay diving in a sea of wet
Yeah, hands on your silhouette
Hey, now I wanna see you clear
And I wanna see you clear

I look better in the shadow
Little less scary, easier to handle
Got a little nerve damage form the infrared
Could you get used to dark instead?
Approach with caution if you listen to instinct
Mind over matter, are you for or against me?
Let's read the room
I stand out, you stand where I can see you
What about the bed we fall in? I need more than Four Seasons
So aim, study, keep your eyes on me
These windows just might let the light inside us

Two can play these games so I don't
I don't do pretend, no, I don't
Two can play these games so I don't
I don't do pretend, no, I don't, I don't

Fall right on me
I'll take you as you are
Just fall right on me

Aye, hands on your silhouette
Stay diving in a sea of wet

Aye, hands on your silhouette
(Hands on your silhouette, ooh)
Aye, now I wanna see you clear
(I wanna see you clear, I wanna see you clear, oh)

You can turn the lights on
Thinking 'bout your good loving
Windows, got the blinds down now
Kind of sure they want us
You can turn the lights on
Thinking 'bout your good good loving
Windows, got the blinds down now
Kind of sure they want us
