

Breathe In

Toby Lightman

Oh, oh-oh, oh
Oh, oh-oh, oh
Oh, oh-oh, oh
Oh, oh-oh, oh

Thought it'd be easy, easy
To find my way home, the way home
It's hitting hard but my heart says don't let go
So I let the light, let the light in I'm gonna keep on perfecting
I'll make mistakes while my heart screams don't let go

Some days get way too dark
Some nights I go too far

Oh (Oh, oh-
oh, oh) I'm moving on, breathe in, breathe out (Oh, oh-oh, oh) Oh (Oh, oh-oh, oh) I'm taking steps, breathe in, breathe out (O h, oh-oh, oh)

I feel the air while I'm rising
Why's it always so surprising
When I can see to the other side, don't let go
And now I feel like I'm flying
And [?] crying
No going back to the other side, don't let go

Some days get way too dark
Some nights I go too far

Oh (Oh, oh-
oh, oh) I'm moving on, breathe in, breathe out (Oh, oh-oh, oh) Oh (Oh, oh-oh, oh) I'm taking steps, breathe in, breathe out (O
h, oh-oh, oh)
Oh (Oh, oh-
oh, oh) I'm moving on, breathe in, breathe out (Oh, oh-oh, oh) Oh (Oh, oh-oh, oh) I'm taking steps, breathe in, breathe out (O
h, oh-oh, oh)

Finding my way, finding my way, finding my way, oh
Finding my way, finding my way, finding my way, oh
Finding my way, finding my way, finding my way down, oh
Finding my way, finding my way, finding my way out, oh

Oh yeah, yeah
