

Bumps in the Road

Toby Lightman

I will wait for you
I don't care if there's a work to do
When a dust settles down, there'll be love all around
So I will wait for you

Come on and take my hand
'Cause I'm building us a brand new plan
If we gotta jump from this train in the pouring rain
Are you ready? I know I am

Sometimes life moves way too fast
No more running away with nothing to say
I know you can't live this life in the past
Are you ready?

'Cause I'm taking this weight and tearing it down
Throwing it off the tracks, there's no looking back
On that now, it's just you and I
We don't have to go it alone
Over these bumps in the road

And I know that change is hard
And it's tough when you take down your guard
But you gotta look at yourself before you love someone else
It's a fair game of playing your cards

Sometimes life moves way too fast
No more stepping aside with tears in our eyes
I know you can't live this life in the past
Are you ready?

'Cause I'm taking this weight and tearing it down
Throwing it off the tracks, there's no looking back
On that now, it's just you and I
We don't have to go it alone
Over these bumps in the road
I'm over these bumps in the road
Are you ready?

'Cause I'm taking this weight and tearing it down
Throwing it off the tracks, there's no looking back
On that now, it's just you and I
We don't have to go it alone
I'm taking this weight and tearing it down
Throwing it off the tracks, there's no looking back
On that now, it's just you and I
We don't have to go it alone
Over these bumps in the road
