

Ebb and Flow

Toby Lightman

And I see the light of a beautiful morning
Good intentions roll around in my head
Feels like yesterday's no longer important
That's what they say, somebody said

But I won't, I won't, I won't wait
For the truth to come around
It will come without warning
Without a sound

Oh
Standing over broken ground
Where am I gonna land now? Oh
Is everybody lost and found?
I don't know, oh

If it's already done, there's no choice in the matter
Comes and it goes, gives and it takes
Reaching for ceilings nobody can shatter
Maybe it's me, maybe it ain't

But I won't, I won't, I won't wait
For the truth to come around
It will come without warning
Without making a sound

Oh
Standing over broken ground
Where am I gonna land now? Oh
I can't find my way around
When I feel like I keep falling over, oh
Is everybody lost and found?

So I said no
Just to say yeah
The ebb and flow, oh, oh
So I said no
Just to say yeah
The ebb and flow, oh, oh

Oh
Standing over broken ground
Where am I gonna land now? Oh
I can't find my way around
When I feel like I keep falling over, oh
Is everybody lost and found?
I don't know
