

MY EYES

Toby Mai

Back home, girl, you know what's good
Come through, girl, you know you could (could)
I know that I been gone
Oh, oh-oh

Suns up and the moons down (moon's down)
I don't wanna leave town (leave town)
Whole world should've seen her (seen her)
Should've seen her with my eyes (my eyes)

We've been fucking like all night long
Still goin' then here's the sun (sun)
Whole world should've seen her (seen her)
Should've seen her with my eyes

Uh, uh

Should've seen her through my eyes
Could've stayed there my whole damn life
Would've spent so much more time
With you bae, and

All these girls getting wild again
I'ma love you girl while I can (while I can)
I'ma love you even if I'm gone
Even if I'm gone, oh

Suns up and the moons down (moons down)
I don't wanna leave town (leave town)
Whole world should've seen her (seen her)
Should've seen her with my eyes

We've been fucking like all night long
Still goin' then here's the sun
Whole world should've seen her (seen her)
Should've seen her with my eyes

Should've held you close, my love (my love)
Should've held you close, my love (love)
'Cause I miss you most
Uh-ah

And she got what the most don't see (uh)
Faded, girl, 'cause that pussy's OD (OD)
Showin' out 'cause I been low-key (low-key)
I done been low-key, yeah

She in love with the thought of it (yeah)
Movin' 'round like I'm on the run
On the run, on the run
On the run

Suns up and the moons down (moon's down)
I don't wanna leave town (oh, no)
Whole world should've seen her (uh)
Should've seen her with my eyes

We've been fucking like all night long (night)
Still goin' then here's the sun (sun)
Whole world should've seen her (baby)
Should've seen her with my eyes (baby, you feel so good)

We've been fucking like all night long (long)
Still goin' and here's the sun (oh, you feel so good, ah)
Whole world should've seen her
Should've seen her with my eyes
