

Fire's Burnin'

TobyMac

Strike it up, set ablaze
Everything I've been chasin', all the games I've been playin'
We can watch 'em all, go up in flames
Let 'em say that I'm crazy, but I'm leaving those days behind

I got my eyes wide open and they're only on You
This ain't no side thing, my ride-or-die thing
I put it all on the table, You're the one that I choose
You got my whole heart, Lord
This fire's burnin' for You

Burnin' for You
Burnin' for You

Yesterday is yesterday
I just barely escaped it, I was ripe for the taking
But You made a way, when there was no way
Now I'm turning the page, and it's a glorious day

I am the moth and You are the flame
Yeah, yeah

I got my eyes wide open and they're only on You
This ain't no side thing, my ride-or-die thing
I put it all on the table, You're the one that I choose
You got my whole heart, Lord
This fire's burnin' for You

Burnin' for You
Burnin' for You
This fire's burnin' for You

Burnin' for You
Burnin' for You

I am the moth and You are the flame
Lord, I'm drawn to You, again and again

Yeah, I got my eyes wide open and they're only on You
This ain't no side thing, my ride-or-die thing
I put it all on the table, You're the one that I choose
You got my whole heart, Lord

I got
I got my eyes wide open and they're only on You
This ain't no side thing, my ride-or-die thing
I put it all on the table, You're the one that I choose
You got my whole heart, Lord
My whole heart
This fire's burnin' for You

It's only burnin' for You
Burnin' for You
This fire's burnin' for You
It's only burnin' for You
Burnin' for You
This fire's burnin' for You

It's only burnin' for You
Burnin' for You
It's only burnin' for You
