

Espionage

Todd Rundgren

I thought that there could be some kind of privacy
A place for you and me where we could just be we
Without no espionage

See I can see that they watching me
I can't feel it, they watching you and me

I thought that there could be some kind of privacy
A place for you and me where we could just be we
Without no espionage

I can't feel it, they watching you and me

But it seems there can't be
The kind of liberty where we don't need to be
Worried about espionage

Champagne Popsicles
No Campaign Obstacles
Loss of Truth, De La Soul, Posdnuos
My life is like a blog of Proof
I Give you four bars like Wifi
Mezza Olive Oil Popeye then I disappear like POOF!
Genie out the lamp line up and the gold tooth
I'm a fucking cartoon, all I see is a box around me
Everything on loop
Introduction so classic sounding
Me and Sandhill like a fountain of youth
Treat you like our sons like an Aunt Will Ain't no hype that you can't kill
Omar like Damn, Chill
But the Sun don't chill at all
White Supremacy might kill a law
But it still can't kill Allah

I thought that there could be some kind of privacy
A place for you and me where we could just be we
Without no espionage

See I can see that they watching me
I can't feel it, they watching you and me

I thought that there could be some kind of privacy
A place for you and me where we could just be we
Without no espionage

I can't feel it, they watching you and me

But it seems there can't be
The kind of liberty where we don't need to be
Worried about espionage

I thought that there could be some kind of privacy
A place for you and me where we could just be we
Without no espionage

But it seems there can't be

The kind of liberty where we don't need to be
