

A Lot More

Todd Snider

Some guys are looking for diamonds
Some guys just want to pay their bills
Some guys are climbing up mountains
While others are digging for thrills
Some guys just want to win trophies
Some guys just want to get girls
And some guys swear they won't stop working
'Till they own everything in the worldChorus:
Well good luck at the end of that rainbow
If you thi[G]nk that's what you're here for Make no mistakes about it baby
I want a whole lot more
I want a whole lot more
Sometimes I see people out herePlaying every single one of their cardsFor bigger this and better thatAnd greener grass 'round the pools in their yardThey work and they slave just so they can save upA whole lot to leave behindYeah some guys are just so certain successIs the key to their piece of mindChorus
I want a whole lot more than treasure
That I can store down here on earth Price 'em any way that you want to Hey buddy I know what they're worth
Yeah some guys want attention
Some guys want girls
And some dig kickin' down doors
Some guys will want everything in the whole wide world
I want a whole lot more
I want a whole lot more
There's a whole lot more
