

Back to the Crossroads

Todd Snider

I've been lost for a while
I think I may be off by a million miles
But I'm gonna find my way
Back to the crossroads someday
And I'm gonna lay my soul in His hands

I asked directions back at the station
I had a feeling I could trust that guy
I was mistaken, now I got a feeling
That I'll be driving down this highway till the day that I die
Still I don't care even if I got to crawl
'Til I ain't got any knees at all
I'm gonna find my way
Back to the crossroads someday
And I'm gonna lay my soul in His hands

In His hands
In His hands
I'm gonna lay my soul in His hands oh Lord
And gonna find my way someday

In His hands
In His hands
I'm gonna lay my soul in His hands oh Lord
And gonna find my way back to the crossroads someday
And I'm gonna lay my soul in His hands
