

Stoner Yodel Number One

Todd Snider

Now you got it right on the money
Now you're playing through your amplifier
Now you're singing about that milk and honey
Now you sound like a rapid fire

Getting lost like a sock in a drier?
Trying to find a way to resonate a little higher?

Now you're preaching to the shithouse choir
(Now you're preaching to the shithouse choir)
Now you're preaching to the shithouse choir
(Now you're preaching to the shithouse choir)

Now you're talking go on ahead with it
Now you're working with your pants on fire
Now you're hitting that nail on the head of it
Now you're speaking to my heart's desire

You talk about tangled up in barbed wire?
Trying to find a way to resonate a little higher?

Now you're preaching to the shithouse choir
(Now you're preaching to the shithouse choir)
Now you're preaching to the shithouse choir
(Now you're preaching to the shithouse choir)

Now you're gassing at it, blow a gasket
While you're at it, blow attire
Now you're weaving a collection basket
Now you're building up your own empire

All you need is a ten and a fiver?
A car and a key and a sober driver?

Now you're preaching to the shithouse choir
(Now you're preaching to the shithouse choir)
Now you're preaching to the shithouse choir
(Now you're preaching to the shithouse choir)
Now you're preaching to the shithouse choir
(Now you're preaching to the shithouse choir)
Now you're preaching to the shithouse choir
(Now you're preaching to the shithouse choir)
Now you're preaching to the shithouse choir
(Now you're preaching to the shithouse choir)
Now you're preaching
Now you're preaching
