

Apple Pie

Todrick Hall

Take a second to reflect on your reflection in the mirror looking back at you

Take a moment to forget what you've been told and just remember what your heart says too

Reconsider that your mind is so much bigger

And the picture's never been more clear, no

And when your spirit feels like it's disappearing

Well I hope that you can hear it saying

Baby change is coming

Got peace and love in the oven

Just mix that sin with cinnamon in

We're free like the fourth of July

Tell darkness keep on running

The clouds will part and let the sun in

Open your heart and let someone in

It's easy like apple pie

Take a second to look in the right direction

Cause we're headed for a brand new day

Take a minute just be careful how you spend it

Because karma has a pretty large price to pay

And change don't come easy

If we want to be free

I need you, you need me

Together completely

Don't have to agree

We've got love that's all we need

Honey please believe me that

Baby change is coming

Got peace and love in the oven

Just mix that sin with cinnamon in

We're free like the fourth of July

Tell darkness keep on running

The clouds will part and let the sun in

Open your heart and let someone in

It's easy like apple pie

It's easy like apple pie

Easy like, easy like apple pie

Easy like apple pie

It's easy like

It's easy like apple pie

Easy like Sunday morning

Oh when the storm ends

Baby change is coming

Got peace and love in the oven

Just mix that sin with cinnamon in

We're free like the fourth of July

Tell darkness keep on running

The clouds will part and let the sun in

Open your heart and let someone in

It's easy like apple pie

It's easy like, it could be easy like apple pie

Easy like apple pie

It's easy like apple pie
