

Warning

Todrick Hall

We've been Doing
This dance called love
But we can't find the beat
One step
Forward
Then three steps back til you step on my feet
Rounding
Circles
Like a record stuck on repeat
Til he Came in
And showed you new choreography

But we both gaze at the same moon even though we're miles and miles away
I'm waiting for the next time we're in the same room cause there's a couple things I gotta say
Like I never wanted to push you, I was just afraid for you to stay
And I know that we got our issues, baby, but before you walk away

I'm warning you
You'll never break these guarded walls
They're bulletproof
And til I trust you, there's no way you're getting through
But if you prove, that what you say to me is true
Then I will love you like he's never gonna do

I'm warning you, I'm warning you, I'm warning
I'm warning you, I'm warning you, I'm warning
Bridges burnt and there's no tunnel to get me to you
Loves a burden, but it's here now, so what do we do?
Cause my hearts been broken cause it opened a little too soon
I'll swim the ocean as long as you're out there swimming too

Cause we both gaze at the same moon even though we're miles and miles away
I'm waiting for the next time we're in the same room cause there's a couple
things I gotta say
Like I never wanted to push you, I was just afraid for you to stay
And I know we both got our issues, baby, but before you walk away

I'm warning you, I'm warning you, I'm warning
You'll never break these guarded walls, they're bulletproof, they're bulletp roof
Until I trust you, there's no way you're getting through
But if you prove, that what you say to me is true
Then I will love you like he's never gonna do
I'm warning you, I'm warning you, I'm warning
I'm warning you, I'm warning you, I'm warning

If I could turn back time I would jump ship to your ship
Run on the stage and put my lips on your lips Confess my love so you'll never second guess, just as long as you don't slip and fall, you know the rest
And baby, I die everytime you flash those eyes, kiss them baby blues
I get hypnotized and mesmerized the way you move
The simple plans, you know how they drive me crazy
Watching Nikki Blonksy videos with my baby

I miss you rolling your eyes, I miss your small feet
And the vanilla lush cologne because it's so sweet
And it's way out of my element, but I can't wait to see your face when you see those baby elephants
So let the whole world know, I don't care
Love that hottie with the body and the curly hair
Side chicks your barking up the wrong tree
And when they ask me for my number, I'll say 23

I'm warning you, I'm warning you, I'm warning
You'll never break these guarded walls, they're bulletproof, they're bulletproof
Until I trust you, there's no way you're getting through
But if you prove, that what you say to me is true
Then we can play this game of love, and never lose
I'm warning you, I'm warning you, I'm warning, baby
I'm warning you, I'm warning you, I'm warning
I'm warning you
