I got melancholy dreams out the '06
Walkin' out the store, poppin' pussies, no emotions
If you see the po', tell them pussies they get throat slit
Bustin' through the door, better get they ass in motion

So many chemicals sit in my body, I gotta cure at least one disease
And don't cause him harm 'cause my bodyguard carry two straps like dungarees
I like crazy women 'cause they know just how to stay protective if she ever not with me
She keep a taser always in her custody, you hear the "bzzz" from her like a bumblebee
I took a double shot inside the Doubletree, I took a triple shot and now I'm seeing triple Bitches get to know me by the VVS, if you ask her, those my three initials (
They my three initials, haha)
Plenty fish in the sea, so we can't be official Bouta drop and fuck shit up and shake the whole country up like a North Kore a missile
Lemme reason with you I'm the one (One), none to follow, none to come (None) Lot of rappers I inspired, I wish I could say they fire, but they butt (They butt)
20 records filling up a tape, to get to record two, I had to take a drink
It took an adderall to get to record eight, you got like 20 songs, still not hing to say, what the fuck?

I got-, I got-, I got-, I got melancholy dreams out the '06
Walkin' out the store, poppin' pussies, no emotions
If you see the po', tell them pussies they get throat slit
Bustin' through the door, better get they ass in motion
