

Yeah, yeah, uh
Yeah, yeah, yeah, uh
Yeah, yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah, yeah
Remember I would post pics, leaning on a new whip
Even though it wasn't my car
Finally got the license, I just copped a new Benz
I wish you could see me right now

Girl, you know how I get
Highest highs, lowest lows, how unstable I get
You understand me more than me, just how crazy I get
I ain't tryna find someone else to explain me that shit
I don't trust a lot of people, not a lot of people (Yeah)
Lot of people tryna talk to me, I'm hard to reach though
I might turn to an extreme, everything I was against Caught on camera and it sent someone you ain't met

Pull in, hop out, pull in, hop out
Come through, come through
Single again so tell them girls bring booze
I probably toast for something I didn't do
So when I take a sip, I'ma sip for you

Sip for you, sip for you, sip for you (Yeah)
Sip for you, sip for you, sip for you

Yeah, I hope you working on yourself instead of someone new
That's what I said that I'ma do, but I lied to you
Few shots, I thought of you
Two stops 'till rendezvous
New friends to acclimate, two tens in back of me
You dodged a bullet, I been on a heatwave
I'm not as poppin' these days, I got a lot to retrace
"I could live without the love", what I told myself
But that love-fueled everything else
Everything's different now, everything fell
Used to brush shit off, now everything's felt
Guess it's what I dealt
The way I am with love is funny, y'all
I fall hard but I never fall

Pull in, hop out, pull in, hop out
Come through, come through
Single again so tell them girls bring booze
I probably toast for something I didn't do
So when I take a sip, I'ma sip for you

Sip for you, sip for you, sip for you (Yeah)
Sip for you, sip for you, sip for you

Remember I would post pics, leaning on a new whip
Even though it wasn't my car
Finally got the license, I just copped a new Benz
