

Nice Guys

Tom Beck

You had your hands all over me, there was no doubt where it was gonna lead, at least for me, You said baby let's go to your room, I got some dirty things I wanna do
But then you changed your tune

Why am I laying here all alone, with all the lights turned on a nd so am I baby
Why did you leave me with the pay TV and dreams of double Ds
I guess nice guys finish last or sometimes not at all

I bet that you're not single anyway -noway-, or maybe you forgo t to tell me you were gay, But that's ok, hey-ey, it really doesn't matter either way, cau se I'm in so much pain, it even hurts my brain

Why am I laying here all alone, with all the lights turned on a nd so am I baby
Why did you leave me with the pay TV and dreams of double Ds
I guess nice guys finish last or sometimes not at all

That's the kind of guy everyone wants me to be But being that guy it's really not working for me, it's just no t working for me

Why am I laying here all alone, with all the lights turned on a nd so am I baby
Why did you leave me with the pay TV and dreams of double Ds
I guess nice guys finish last Why am I laying here all alone, with all the lights turned on a nd so am I baby
Why did you leave me with the pay TV and dreams of double Ds
I guess nice guys finish last or sometimes not at all
