

Bound Together

Tom Chaplin

Long after the rain
I hold you close until the clouds have parted
Long before the flood
Swallowed us all
Do you remember how we started?

We weathered a storm
Battered and broken
Still we are bound together
Love, love is a thread
We were torn open but we are
Bound together now

Change, the passing years
Carry us home
Back to a secret garden
Where free of our fears
We start to grow
Flowering from the seed we planted

We weathered a storm
Battered and broken
Still we are bound together
Love, love is a thread
We were torn open but we are
Bound together now

Oh oh oh

Never forget

We weathered a storm
Battered and broken
Still we are bound together
Love, love is a thread
We were torn open but we are
Bound together now
