

Colourful Light

Tom Chaplin

Mirror don't crack
All I know is staring me back
All that I've been
Paint me red, blue, yellow and green

In my reflection
Is a spectrum come alive
Through the prism of my heartbreak
Rays of colorful light

Mirror I win
'Cause even though you're lining my skin
Oh, I'm still daring to dream
That's the trouble with me

In my reflection
Is a spectrum come alive
Through the prism of my heartbreak
Rays of colorful light

Mirror don't cry
Know I've lived a beautiful life
Oh, a miracle dream
I was all I could be red, blue, yellow and green

I knew rejection
Resurrection, what a ride
From the chasm of my heartbreak
I reached a dizzying height

In my reflection
Recollection of a life
Through the prism of my heartbreak
Are rays of colorful light

Rays of colorful light
Rays of colorful light
Rays of colorful light

All I can see from a dizzying height
Are rays of colorful dreams and beautiful lights
All I can see from a dizzying height
