

Panoramic Eyes

Tom Chaplin

All our lives are a flash of borrowed time
Hollowed out from a diamanté sky
Old high rollers
We're just trying to keep the streak alive
Keep the streak alive

Higher and higher and higher until you feel it
Higher and higher and higher until you see with
Panoramic eyes, panoramic eyes
Oh once alive

Human life is the sentimental dream
Of a planet desiring to be seen
All we are is now and now is all we've ever been

Higher and higher and higher until you feel it
Wider and wider and wider until you see with
Panoramic eyes, panoramic eyes
Oh once alive
Panoramic eyes
In cinematic wide
We dance alive

Higher and higher and higher until you feel it
Louder and louder and louder until you hear it
Higher and higher and higher until you feel it
Wider and wider and wider until you see with
Panoramic eyes
Panoramic eyes
Oh once alive
Panoramic eyes
Panoramic eyes
Oh once alive
