

Solid Gold

Tom Chaplin

You gave me solid gold
But to my touch, it felt cold
You gave me something real
I saw sorcery, I saw alchemy

God I was lonely
Stuck in my own skin
In spite of my pride
I finally let you in

And now I see it now I'm certain
I see you with my eyes opened
Trusting that our love
Our love is enough
Solid gold and perfect to the touch

Our love was torn apart
A victim of my raging heart
But you gathered it all up
There at the bitter end
Piecing it back again

God I would always
Wind up such a mess
Took me so long to
Find out I was blessed
Yes

And now I see it now I'm certain
I see you with my eyes opened
Trusting that our love
Our love is enough
Solid gold and perfect to the touch

You'll never be lonely
Never be lonely not again
I'm letting you in and now

You'll never be lonely
Never be lonely not again
No, no, no
