

Mary Jane

Tom Dice

Mary Jane

Love is not an easy game to play
You say you wanna dive in anyway
But that's so fine, Mary Jane

Oh, it's change

'Cause lately I've been thinking just the same
So jump into a taxi to my place
And we'll work things out, Mary Jane

I swear, all my life

You played on my mind
And I swear, all this time
You played with my mind

Mary Jane

I got Dylan singing loud, he's got the blues
Now my world is just a blur, it's only you
And our favourite song, oh, Mary Jane

So heard me now

We got so much left to say, so much to do
And honey, let's go crazy, make a baby, maybe two
But that's later on, oh, Mary Jane

I swear, all my life

You played on my mind
And I swear, all this time
You played on my mind

Ooh always trying to hide who we are

Ooh always trying to dance
Ooh if I'm gonna open black [?]
It's the last time
Ooh it's the last time
Ooh it's the last time
Ooh baby it's the last time

I swear, all my life

(I swear, all my life)
You played on my mind
(You played on my mind)
And I swear, all this time
(I swear, all this time)
You played on my mind
