

Easy On Me

Tom Gregory

When I'm sleeping alone beside you
Do I ever fill the space in this bed?
Even though it's you I turn to
Could I ever feel

Oh like the fire in our hearts are burning
And the embers turn from smoke to flames
But it goes like this
Can't change a thing
I know the heartache 'cause I feel the same

Who said it was easy on me now?
Letting someone like you go
I'd never say that my heart breaks
'Cause loving ain't easy

Who said it was easy on you now?
Letting someone like me go
You'd never say that your heart breaks
Oh loving ain't easy

Had to let ourselves divide too
So we could go on in our separate ways
After everything we've gone through
Could I ever feel

Oh like the fire in our hearts are burning
And the embers turn from smoke to flames
But it goes like this
Can't change a thing
I know the heartache 'cause I feel the same

Who said it was easy on me now?
Letting someone like you go
I'd never say that my heart breaks
'Cause loving ain't easy

Who said it was easy on you now?
Letting someone like me go
You'd never say that your heart breaks
Oh loving ain't easy

And who said we would ever figure out?
And who said it was easy on us now?

Who said it was easy on me now?
Letting someone like you go
I'd never say that my heart breaks
'Cause loving ain't easy

Who said it was easy on me now?
Letting someone like you go
I'd never say that my heart breaks
'Cause loving ain't easy
