

Losing Sleep

Tom Gregory

You know that I like it when
I'm around you again
But I don't wanna see us breaking
Breaking us down
I'm on my bedroom floor
Wrapped up in a thousand thoughts
I don't know how long I can take it
It's tearing me down

I'm done with trying
To slowly find
A way we can reconcile

'Cause I've been losing
Too much sleep for you
Feel like a fool
Fighting 'bout nothing
All the time
And I can't find peace of mind
When I'm with you
What did we do
Fighting 'bout nothing
All the time

I haven't slept in days
So much that I wanna say
Is weighing me down
But you don't hear me
Not hearing me out
Why did we lose so much
Of what I thought was a perfect love
Slammed your door in my face
You're kicking, kicking me out

I'm done with trying
To slowly find
A way we can reconcile

'Cause I've been losing
Too much sleep for you
Feel like a fool
Fighting 'bout nothing
All the time
And I can't find peace of mind
When I'm with you
What did we do
Fighting 'bout nothing
All the time

You're so hard to reach baby
I'm getting no sleep lately
I've been losing
Too much sleep for you

You're so hard to reach baby

Too much sleep for you

I've been losing
Too much sleep for you
All the time
When I'm with you
What did we do
All the time

(I can't get no sleep)

I've been losing
Too much sleep for you
Feel like a fool
Fighting 'bout nothing
All the time
And I can't find peace of mind
When I'm with you
What did we do
Fighting 'bout nothing
All the time

You're so hard to reach baby
Too much sleep for you
