

Man Still Cries

Tom Gregory

I've been down, down on my luck
Trying to keep my logic bottled up
Trying to be someone I'm not
Just to keep you on a little bit longer

Woah I run out of fire
Woah stop yourself and listen

Who's gonna love me, gonna love me right?
Who's gonna love me when I'm hurt inside?
I know you think that I'm a tough guy
But this man still cries
Who's gonna love me, gonna love me right?
Who's gonna love me when I'm hurt inside?
I know you think that I'm a tough guy
But this man still cries

Cry, cry I
But this man still cries

I've been down, down on my luck
Trying to hold on but it's not enough
You're making me someone I'm not Everyday I feel myself going under

Woah I run out of fire
Woah stop yourself and listen

Who's gonna love me, gonna love me right?
Who's gonna love me when I'm hurt inside?
I know you think that I'm a tough guy
But this man still cries
Who's gonna love me, gonna love me right?
Who's gonna love me when I'm hurt inside?
I know you think that I'm a tough guy
But this man still cries

Cry, cry I
But this man still cries

Who's gonna love me, gonna love me right?
Who's gonna love me when I'm hurt inside?
I know you think that I'm a tough guy
Stop yourself and listen

Who's gonna love me gonna love me right
Who's gonna love me when I'm hurt inside
I know you think that I'm a tough guy
But this man still cries
Who's gonna love me gonna love me right
Who's gonna love me when I'm hurt inside
I know you think that I'm a tough guy
But this man still cries

Cry, cry I
But this man still cries
