

Wreck

Tom Gregory

She knows what I don't
She loves me when I won't
Rough waters ran so cold
Oh how'd I wander so far from home?

I lost myself in the deep of the dark times
Right up till you pulled me out of that past life

Oh, I'd go out fighting all the demons in my head
I'd be ten drinks deeper just to kill a little edge
Oh, I got way too good at making strangers out of friends, believe me
If I never met you darling, I'd still be a wreck

Hey
Hey
Hey
I'd still be a wreck
Hey
Hey
Hey
I'd still be a wreck

What would you do?
Where would you be?
Different lover?
Different city?
If I'm honest, you make it easy
Building mountains out of the smallest pieces

I lost myself in the deep of the dark times
Right up till you pulled me out of that past life

Oh, I'd go out fighting all the demons in my head
I'd be ten drinks deeper just to kill a little edge
Oh, I got way too good at making strangers out of friends, believe me
If I never met you darling, I'd still be a wreck

Hey
Hey
Hey
I'd still be a wreck

Oh, I got way too good at making strangers out of friends, believe me
If I never met you darling, I'd still be a wreck

Hey
Hey
Hey
