Before You

Tom Grennan

Clueless, stupid
I didn't know what I was doing
I just needed waking up, mm

Reckless, ruined
Guess I thought that I was moving
Way too fast to fall in love

Now I'm tryna find the time
To tell you what's been on my mind
I never knew which words were right
But now I do

Before you, every goodbye felt the same (Yeah-yeah, yeah)
Before you, all the nights bled into days (Yeah-yeah, yeah)
Oh, I used to only play to win
Now, darling, I got everything to lose
Oh, I guess I never knew
Love before you (Woo)

Before you

You were patient, you waited
Guess you knew I needed saving
Just had to work it out for myself

Now I'm tryna find the time
To tell you what's been on my mind
I never had someone to fight for
But now I do

Before you, every goodbye felt the same (Yeah-yeah, yeah)
Before you, all the nights bled into days (Yeah-yeah, yeah)
Oh, I used to only play to win
Now, darling, I got everything to lose
Oh, I guess I never knew
Love before you (Woo)

Before you

Thought I found the one, oh, a hundred times
But it wasn't right before you
Oh

Before you, every goodbye felt the same
Before you, the nights bled into days
Oh, I used to only play to win
Now, darling, I got everything to lose
Oh, I guess I never knew
Love before you
