Oh Please

Tom Grennan

Oh, you took your time
Three years of my mind
Then you sit there like it's nothing

And the one I'll lose
With her back to you
She don't have a clue you're laughing

Why you back here now?
Wanna spend my pound?
Wasn't me who did the running

You'll have a few new lines
Where the sun don't shine
Crack a smile but it ain't funny

I feel closer, way closer
It's like the year's gone up in smoke
Way closer, way closer
But the way I feel
Ain't nothing I ain't felt before
And the way I feel
I'll keep it under my control
I'll forget about you
In the morning
I'll sleep you off and wake with my mind at ease
Your 3AM call, I'll ignore it
I'll sleep you off and wake with my mind at ease
Oh please

So tell me what went on
Did he touch you wrong?
Was I getting harder to remember?

What ya have in mind?
Should we tell this time
Or are we two not so young offenders?

So you catch a flight
See if the fire would light
I'm your man, I'm your money lender

Might be happy now
But don't turn around
Let's just have one more time together

Feel closer, way closer
It's like them years gone up in smoke
Way closer, way closer
The way I feel
Ain't nothing I ain't felt before
And the way I feel
I'll keep it under my control
I'll forget about you
In the morning

I'll sleep you off and wake with my mind at ease
Oh please

Feel closer, way closer
It's like the feeling don't get old
And I told ya, I told ya
You're the money, yeah the trust I hold

But the way I feel
And the way I feel
I'll keep it under my control
I'll forget about you
In the morning
I'll sleep you off and wake with my mind at ease
Your 3AM call, I'll ignore it
Oh please
