

Shadows on the Ceiling

Tom Grennan

Roses on the bed
Our silhouettes
Are dancing in the night (you dim the light)
Your confidence
Oh the suspense
Is something more than passion (it's in your eyes)

I wanna dive in your ocean
Swim inside the emotion
No one else in this moment
Give you all of my focus

Before I fell for this magic
Damn I thought that I had it
Oh oh, oh oh, oh oh
Oh baby what a feeling
Our bodies making shadows on the ceiling
You've got me heavy breathing
Tonight we're giving sex a different meaning

Sweet, honey, sugar, spice
Travelling the speed of light
Gold, money, ain't a price
That you could put on you and I

Before I fell for this magic
Damn I thought that I had it
Oh oh, oh oh, oh oh
Oh baby what a feeling
Our bodies making shadows on the ceiling
You've got me heavy breathing
Tonight we're giving sex a different meaning
Oh baby what a feeling
Our bodies making shadows on the ceiling
You've got me heavy breathing
Were spinning like a record, let's repeat it
Repeat it

Oh what a feeling
Shadows on the ceiling
Oh what a feeling
Shadows on the ceiling
