

Silhouette

Tom Grennan

Do you remember back in the days
My eyes were plastered over pavement blocks again
Don't you let, don't you let me be
My God told me he's ageing
My mother told me to pack it in
I drink to forget for my sins
So don't, don't cry

Find me a colour, find me the truth
Find me another, find [?]
So hold me together and I'll be the dreamer
Find me a colour I need

Don't let me fall, don't let me forget
Don't let it bother me, yeah
Don't let it bother me, yeah
Don't let me fall, don't let me forget
'Cause I'll laughing with your pain
Dancing with your silhouette

Said I was trouble to the last
But I don't believe what they say, not again
Won't you go, won't you throw your stones
I won't cry, won't cry

Find me a colour, find me the truth
Find me another, find [?]
So hold me together and I'll be the dream
Find me a colour I need

Don't let me fall, don't let me forget
Don't let it bother me, yeah
Don't let it bother me, yeah
Don't let me fall, don't let me forget
'Cause I'll laughing with your pain
Dancing with your silhouette

I left with a message to say it's all been done
Outrun the darkest angels before they get you down
So find me a colour cause I need the truth
Play me a vinyl of you

Don't let me fall, don't let me forget
Don't let it bother me, yeah
Don't let it bother me, yeah
Don't let me fall, don't let me forget
'Cause I'll laughing with your pain
Dancing with your silhouette
