

A Perfect Day

Tom Helsen

Stall if you don't seem to find all the things that you wanted,

We should let this one slide

Remind to remind her that everything soon will be gone

So we let this one slide

This is a perfect day and I've got your rambling rose

It's five over late

This is a perfect day and I'll just take half of it

And than we will all behave

We'll all be just fine

And the fourth of July slowly passes you by when you're out

And I'm sure this is not what you wanted, not what you beg for the most

And this is a perfect day, yeah

And this is a perfect day yeah

And this is a perfect day if you know what I mean

But you don't, no you don'

You should wait for the one who's been screwing around

Who saw every boys room in an average town

You should leave those things to me

And this is a perfect day,

And this is a perfect day if you know what I mean

And this is a perfect day, yeah
