

Don't Let Them Get You Down

Tom Helsen

It's the worst hour that you've ever seen
Say what you see, nothing in between
It's a blur when you talk and what it doesn't mean
And I fell down of something new
And I let them all walk right over you
Yeah she's all that you're not and she knows
Yeah she's all that you're not and she knows

Don't let them get you down
Don't let them try
Don't let them get you down
I can tell no-one's around

Try to, not for you to see
Kind if you say, you don't have to be
Someone else you just find and you know it
It's why I like you, but I don't need to proof this hour
Won't you like a silent group
She's all that you're not and she knows
She's all that you're not and she knows

Don't let them get you down
Don't let them try
Don't let them get you down
I can tell no-one's around
No-one's around

Everyday, yeah almost everyday it's you
Everyday, yeah almost everyday it's you

Don't let them get you down
Don't let them try
Don't let them get you down
I can tell no-one's around
No-one's around

Don't let them get you down
No-one's around
Don't let them get you down
No-one's around
