A Girl Like You

You go to sleep I want to sail in your hair And when you speak You know you've got to make sense

You want to say That it's me you know less I say a girl like you She was born to be blessed

My hands are yours And you can take them from me And take my mouth I have nothing to say

I want to fly To some other place I say a girl like you She was born to be kissed Born to be kissed

One thousand times And your sisters too One thousand times A girl like you

You're gonna say That you want to be free But when you fall You'll know you'll fall back to me

You want to fly And there's no disgrace I say a girl like you She was born to be blessed

My hands are yours 'Cause, I don't know how to pray Take my mouth I have nothing to say

I lift my heart Up to a higher place Up to a girl like you Who was born to be kissed Oh, born to be kissed

One thousand times And your sisters too One thousand times A girl like you

One thousand times And your sisters too One thousand times A girl like you

Tom Jones

One thousand times And your mother too One thousand times A girl like you

One thousand times And your sisters too One thousand times A girl like you

Aw, yeah And your sisters too One thousand times A girl like you

Oh, one thousand times And your sisters too One thousand times I said a girl like you

Oh, one thousand times And your sisters too
