

Day To Day Affair

Tom Jones

Somehow I always thought you'd be with me
I looked around and you were gone
It hurts to be alone

Oh love (love) is just (is just) a day to day affair
Don't keep it going and it won't be there
Oh love (love) is just (is just) a day to day affair
Today I just can't find it anywhere without you there

I used to love to feel you in my arms
And now my heart can't feel the pain
But the pain that love can bring

Oh love (love) is just (is just) a day to day affair
Don't keep it going and it won't be there
Oh love (love) is just (is just) a day to day affair
Today I just can't find it anywhere without you there

Now when there's no place left to turn
No bridges left to burn
I find love

Oh love (love) is just (is just) a day to day affair
Don't keep it going and it won't be there
Oh love (love) is just (is just) a day to day affair
Today I just can't find it anywhere

Oh love (love) is just (is just) a day to day affair
Don't keep it going and it won't be there
Oh love (love) is just (is just) a day to day affair
Today I just can't find it anywhere without you there
