

I Won't Crumble With You If You Fall

Tom Jones

I will wait in the morning if you call
And I'll stand beside you as long as I can
I will hold back the evening of your sun
But I won't crumble with you if you fall

I will shadow the heat of your day
And I'll drink from the sweat of your brow
I will walk to the tune of your soul
But I won't crumble with you if you fall

Come and walk with me and hold to my hand
Touch me, let me know I am here by blessing
Stretch my night dreams into my day
Stop shorter falling apart if I go down

I'll wake in the morning if you go
And I'll stand beside you as long as I can
I will hold back the evening of your sun
But I won't crumble with you if you fall
