

Rainin' In My Heart

Tom Jones

Rainin' in my heart
since we've been apart
I know I was wrong
darling please come on home

You got me cryin'
about to lose my mind Don't let me cry in vain try my love just once again.

Now honey I need your love and darling you know why So if you just come on back home there'd be no need for me and cry

Rainin' in my heart
since we've been apart
I know I was wrong
darling please come on home

Rainin' in my heart...
