

All The Good Things

Tom MacDonald

Life gets hard but I swear to god that it gets better too Tough times never last but tough people always do Relationships will crumble, people die, you'll break some bones and y our friends won't always be there when you need them to be home, but that's OK

All the good things wouldn't be so good without the bad things you go through All the good things wouldn't mean as much if we all didn't have to cr y too
All the good things wouldn't shine as bright if the darkness didn't g o find you
All the good things will not last forever and a day, and that's OK, h ey

Pouring rain in my head but that's okay though I know that there is better days that I'll just have to wait for I'm fucked up for right now, but I'm so ready for a fight now It's been everything that ain't tied down
If you in my way you get lightsed out, too bad I'm letting go of every single thing in my past 'cause I know that if one thing is for sure, that's freedom is a full tank I'm gone, I'm long gone
The storms will come and when it's done so will the sun
The clouds will break and I will laugh and look the devil in his face

'Cause all the good things wouldn't be so good without the bad things we go through All the good things wouldn't mean as much if we all didn't have to cr
y too
And all the good things wouldn't shine as bright if the darkness didn
't go find you
All the good things will not last forever and a day

Don't cry because you're different, just laugh because they're all th e same
You are the game and they just tryna play it Picture them all naked, hit the stage and then go apeshit, do your th ing, do your thing
Take a breath, spread your wings, don't be afraid of falling Crashing is a part of going fast and getting beat up is just a part o f kicking ass
That's the way, when there's love there is pain
When there's night there is day
When you're lost there's a way, go out and find it, find it

Freaking out in my head but I won't lose it I know I have a light inside if I so choose to use it The glass isn't half full unless you believe it, this place ain't you r hometown if you want to leave it, so go Depression can't grow if your soul is bound, anxiety won't ever slow you down if you can just break from the mold they forced you inside o f at 18 years old, you'll be fine

'Cause all the good things wouldn't be so good without the bad things
you go through
All the good things wouldn't mean as much if we all didn't have to cr
y too
And all the good things wouldn't shine as bright if the darkness didn
't go find you
All the good things will not last forever and a day

'Cause all the good things wouldn't be so good without the bad things
you go through
All the good things wouldn't mean as much if we all didn't have to cr
y too
And all the good things wouldn't shine as bright if the darkness didn
't go find you
All the good things will not last forever and a day, and that's OK, h ey but that's OK, ay, ay, ay, ay
