

Bad Bitch

Tom MacDonald

They broke your heart, but it's still beating
You had a feeling from the start
They broke your trust, but not your spirit
Should I remind you who you are?

Got your hair done, nails done, everything did
Got a blue checkmark, and a car, and a crib
Got a couple good friends who all know what is
Screaming, "Fuck that boy, girl, you that bitch!"

You're a bad bitch, baby
Yeah, you're a little crazy
Always fall in love with all the wrong men, o-oh, o-oh
You're a bad bitch, honey
Yeah, you're a little funny
All your exes would be better off dead

They never said that they were leaving
But you woke up and they were gone
They told you lies and you believed 'em
Should I remind you who you are?

Got the rent paid, money saved, everything lit
Got a brand new purse and some diamonds on your wrist
Got a couple good friends who all know what is
Screaming, "Fuck that boy, girl, you that bitch!"

You're a bad bitch, baby
Yeah, you're a little crazy
Always fall in love with all the wrong men, o-oh, o-oh
You're a bad bitch, honey
Yeah, you're a little funny
All your exes would be better off dead

You hit unfollow, crack the bottle
Hit the town with all your girls
You can cry for hours tomorrow
But tonight, you run the world
Sometimes, love ain't like the movies
It don't last long, don't forget
Your friends don't know the truth
Fuck that boy, girl, you that bitch!

You're a bad bitch, baby
Yeah, you're a little crazy
Always fall in love with all the wrong men, o-oh, o-oh
You're a bad bitch, honey
Yeah, you're a little funny
All your exes would be better off dead

You're a bad bitch, baby
Yeah, you're a little crazy
Always fall in love with all the wrong men
You're a bad bitch, honey
Yeah, you're a little funny
All your exes would be better off dead, o-oh, o-oh
